1. Background

1. Despite the general requirement that a risk management programme (RMP) is tailored to the individual business concerned, section 12(3A) of the Animal Products Act 1999 (the Act) allows for a RMP for a particular business, or part of a business, to be based on a template, a model, or a code of practice, if in the view of the Director-General the template, model or code of practice is valid and appropriate for businesses of that kind.
2. The NZFSA has published the Animal Products Act 1999 – Approval of Templates, Models, Codes of Practice Statement of Policy to clarify the application of section 12(3A) of the Act and provide the procedural arrangements for assessing and approving a template, model or code of practice.
3. The NZFSA has developed an RMP template for dairy processors processing liquid milk for New Zealand and Australia only, referred to as the 'Risk Management Programme (RMP) Template for Dairy Processors – Liquid Milk, Domestic Supply'. The version approved is dated December 2008.
